Thanks to all 204 teams, school districts, media, and fans who helped make the 12th annual Spring Ice Breaker the absolute best event, ever. It'll be very hard to top this in 2014. But I'm optimistic we will keep the streak as the only non-tournament in the nation who has increased in teams during every single year of existence.

One unique thing about the SIB is the option to cross pool certain match-ups that may be more appealing to the fans. After viewing several of the teams exceed expectations, I stayed up late into the night shuffling the schedule in order to ensure certain match-ups transpired before this event concluded. First thought was to pair the two Dallas based teams against each other. However, coaches from Texas Select and Deron Williams Elite are expecting to meet the following weekend in a tournament and preferred to save that moment for their hometown fans. The most dominant local team thru Saturday evening was the Houston Celtics, and I did manage to pair them against Deron Williams Elite. That game went right down to the wire as the Celtics got the 58-55 win, thanks to big games from unsigned seniors Donovan Jones and Broderick Harris.

San Antonio 210 Jayhawks put the hammer on GCBC Cagers feat. Yates HS duo Melvin Swift + JC Washington. At one point the score was 39-9 before the Jayhawks cruised to the 59-40 victory. Tanner Leissner led the charge with 16pts, and earned some ink on ESPN.com's website in the process (Reggie Rankin was court-side).

A week removed from leading Dallas Triple A Academy to the 1A State Championship, Jeremiah Jefferson picked up where he left off. The talented guard scored 34pts as Texas Select - Davis picked up a pair of wins over Killeen Elite and Baytown Cougars.

The highly anticipated showdown between Texas PRO vs Texas Ball Hawks proved to be quite lopsided (67-46). Despite having only 6 players suited up, Texas PRO proved to the Ball Hawks - there is a huge difference from 16u to 17u level of play. Damien Day was the leading scorer (18pts) for TP.

Everyone should officially be placed on warn - there are a pair of sleeper teams around the area with plenty to prove. Basketball University Black completed an unbeaten run at the SIB. They won three games over the Houston Clippers, Houston Cowboys, and Houston Force by a combined margin of 70pts. This squad features the returning nucleus of Houston Christian HS, Ashi Peters & Conner Kelly, but the player who shined the brightest this past weekend was Cameron Harvey. GCBC - Bullet also went 3-0 at the SIB. This team features a contingent of very good ball handlers mixed with skilled forwards. Sophomore pgs Carver Hardy & Michael Gonzales both had stellar performances at the SIB. I got chance to check out some of their action against Southern Prep on Sunday afternoon. Texas City HS junior, Marquell Smith produced all 10 of his points in the decisive second half of the 50-37 win.

In the 16u Division, Team NOLA continued to accumulate wins over our premium squads. A thrilling and intense battle over the Texas PRO 16u proved to simply be another notch in NOLA's belt. No way I could let those guys leave town without facing the Houston Defenders - DJ (one of only 2 predominately tenth grade teams who were permitted to play in the 17u division). Upon informing the NOLA coaches of their Sunday 9am date with the highly acclaimed Defenders, I joked that I might bake 'em a berry pie - basketball slang for giving somebody exactly what they want. Once again Melvin Frazier opened the game with an eye opening dunk, but the Defenders controlled the flow and matched the length of NOLA at pretty much every position. The hometown favorite raced out to a four possession lead before NOLA charged back and forced overtime with a buzzer beating tip in. The Louisiana bunch proceeded to knock off the Defenders in OT, and moments later the NOLA coaching staff text me, "Thanks for the experience!! We enjoyed the competition and the hospitality. Next time we would prefer apple pies over berry pies... lol".

The highly touted NOLA 16u squad from New Orleans pulled away from the Texas Ball Hawks, 58-40. Long ultra athletic forward Melvin Frazier caught the attention of many on-lookers with his 19pt 11reb 6blk performance.

Fans filled the gym to witness the Deron Williams Elite featuring the highly touted Neal twins against TJ Ford Basketball. The intensity of this game was identical to a mid July summer ball event. Both teams were going at each other. BJ Jones had a great game for TJ Ford and they were enroute to claiming the win, but DerekNeal raced the length of the floor and connected a buzzer beating floater which provided D-Will Elite the 59-58 win.

Next up was another interesting matchup featuring a Dallas based team. Myles Turner (24pts) had a feast on the low block as Texas Select knocked off Texas Ball Hawks / Louisiana Rockets 53-41.

The state's tallest player, 7'4 Tacko Fall made his summer ball debut with the ISTI All Stars. They suffered a 25pt loss against San Antonio GATA and bounced back a couple hours later to pick up a quality win over the Houston Fever (53-49).

Meanwhile, the Corpus Christi Islanders Basketball Foundation (IBF) shocked the Houston Defenders - DJ in overtime. Speaking of shockers, how about D Gib bouncing back from the opening night loss - and catch fire against Houston Superstars (64-24). No, that's not a typo.

After dropping their opener on Friday, the Houston Hoops 16u appeared to hit full stride vs LA Blue Chips Silver. Christian James converted several high flying crushing dunks during the Hoops 75-26 victory!

The evening concluded with Houston Fever holding back the talented Rockstarz (60-51), Austin Next Level Cats put double digits on the Houston Clippers, and the San Antonio 210 Jayhawks over Houston Defenders - DJ (60-40).

FRIDAY - MARCH 15th - ALL RESULTS!

The opening night of the Spring Ice Breaker featured a trio of highly anticipated grudge matches. Last month Pearland HS floor general Devon Begley informed the D-Gib Hoops that he was leaving to join the Nike sponsored Texas PRO organization. It's never easy for players to leave their long time friends and play on rival organizations, but in today's revolutionized era of summer ball the recruitment of players is year round.

As I comprised the schedule for opening night, I couldn't resist the opportunity to provide Begley with the chance to validate his decision. I scheduled Texas PRO vs D Gib Hoops in a prime time matchup. However, Texas PRO showed up this past weekend with only 5 guys in uniform. Still, they proceeded to thump D-Gib 54-38. Ex Klein Collins HS star, Zach Brown returned to Houston (he currently attends prep school on East Coast) and provided fans with a glimpse of his improved skill set. The athletic wing was definitely a difference maker on this particular evening. As for Begley, he is rapidly evolving into a bona-fide facilitator on the floor. More importantly, teammates were willing to follow his lead. Another bright spots for Texas PRO were Darryl Edwards 6'2 g (Dobie HS 2014) and Jonathan Wiley 6'5 w (St Pius 2014). D Gib was paced by Leon Gilmore 6'7 f (Manvel HS 2014) with 11pts. Gilmore was active but didn't take advantage of the opponent's thin interior defense.

Many of The Woodlands' top players are divided amongst two teams, Houston Stealers and The Woodlands Bulls. Although many of the players are friends at school, the relationships are strictly business whenever they meet. When the dust cleared, the Stealers got some good production from Shane Moran 6'0 g (The Woodlands HS 2014), Chase Mason 6'4 f (The Woodlands HS 2014), and Zach Manning 5'10 pg (The Woodlands HS 2014) combined to produce 38pts while emerging with a hard fought 59-55 victory. It is worth noting that both teams had roughly 7 players in uniform, and a rematch could be on the horizon.

Thirteen summers ago, TJ Ford maveled the country while playing with the Houston Superstars. They are still coached by John Eurey (one of the most animated and vocal figures in all of summer basketball). Ford recently retired from the NBA, and decided to become more involved with his TJ Ford youth basketball program. It was only fitting to enhance TJ's debut as a summer coach with a game opposite Eurey's Houston Superstars. The game itself was actually fun to watch. The TJ Ford squad controlled most of the flow and held off a late rally to beat the Superstars, 60-50. BJ Jones 6'5 pf (Bush HS 2014) led the way with an aggressive 17pts.

Other highlights on Friday evening included the return of Donivan Jones 6'3 f (Westbury HS 2013) aka the unsigned senior who scored 52pts in a high school game 3 months ago, leading the Houston Celtics over the Louisiana Blue Chips Elite. The Houston Hoopstars got 18pts from Markus Polk as they opened the weekend with an impressive win against the Texas GCBC Cagers feat. Yates HS junior duo Melvin Swift (24pts) and JC Washington (16pts). The Houston Defenders - DJ won the highly anticipated showdown vs Houston Hoops 16u. In that game, the Hoops started off strong with a 16-3 lead highlighted by Jordan Hunter's (11 of his game high 25pts). By halftime, the Defenders decreased the deficit to, 24-22, and proceeded to defeat the Hoops 54-41.
